

5 DAY
WATERCOLOUR WORKSHOP
in NORTH MALLORCA with
JOHN BAILEY

A 5 day Watercolour Painting Workshop set in the beautiful hilltop village of Deia on the North Coast of Mallorca.

Small group, relaxed atmosphere, friendly tuition.

£300 tuition, plus travel and accommodation.

WORKSHOP AIMS

This workshop is aimed at people wishing to develop their watercolour technique in a small group setting with tutorial support in an outstandingly beautiful location.

This will be achieved by a combination of short, informal instruction, demonstrations and individual tuition and feedback.

CONTENT

Whilst the content of the workshop will be flexible to meet people's needs, it is likely to cover such aspects as composition, tone, colour, perspective and the value of pen and wash and/or tonal sketches, as information and preparation for a final painting.

LOCATION

The workshop will be based in the beautiful hilltop village of Deia which offers outstanding painting locations including village scenes with terracotta coloured cottages, attractive coves, fishing harbours and the colourful rocky coastline.

ACCOMMODATION

The group will be based in local traditional Mallorcan pension offering simple and reasonably priced accommodation. It has beautiful views of Deia and is within walking distance of a number of restaurants offering local fare. The pension has a shaded terrace for breakfast and coffee. Bookings are best made directly with the owner to satisfy individual requirements.

(www.pensionmiramar.com)

COST

Tuition fee: £300 plus your own travel, accommodation and meals.

ARRIVAL

Cheap flights are available from most airports to Palma. Transport to Deia, approx 20 km, is available by taxi from the airport or bus from Palma. It is suggested that participants arrive on Sunday in order to start at 9.30 on Monday morning.

For further information please contact John on:
01285 760659

For confirmation booking please complete the form.